* Tim Findley (copyrighted story, SFChronicle 24 Aug 71), presumably relying on "San Quentin authorities," says Jackson was shot at 2:55 p.m.

John Clutchette's mother, Mrs. Doris Maxwell, (taped statement, KPFA; do not have date or tape) said she didn't sign out of SQ until some time after 3 p.m., and at that time everything at prison gate was normal and quiet, no excitement.

HW

For your records, here's the latest zag in the official story on George Jackson. Note they've had to add another bullet to account for the ankle wound, also another guard.

jdw21oct71